

Policy on privacy and data protection.

We are compliant to the GDPR-regulations.

What personal data do we collect and why we collect it

- Contact forms

When visitors leave comments on the site we only collect the data shown in the comments form.

- Cookies

We use cookies to make the website functional.

- Embedded content from other websites

Articles on this site may include embedded content (e.g. videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content from other websites behaves in the exact same way as if the visitor has visited the other website.

These websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed additional third-party tracking, and monitor your interaction with that embedded content, including tracing your interaction with the embedded content if you have an account and are logged in to that website.

- Who we share your data with

We do not share your collected data with any third party.

- How long we retain your data

If you leave a comment, the comment and its metadata are retained indefinitely. This is so we can recognise and approve any follow-up comments automatically instead of holding them in a moderation queue.

For users that register on our website, we store the personal information in a spreadsheet that is not on this site but in the possession of the Membership Secretary. Permanent removal of your data can be requested by sending such a request to the Membership Secretary at membership@alm-online.net

- What rights you have over your data

If you have an account on this site, or have left comments, you can request to receive an exported file of the personal data we hold about you, including any data you have provided to us. You can also request that we erase any personal data we hold about you. This does not include any data we are obliged to keep for administrative, legal, or security purposes.
